

Table of Contents

The Engineering Plan ..... 1

Waging an attack on elbow injuries..... 1

The Engineering Plan..... 1

Understanding the Elbow ..... 1

Tracking the elbow during the pitching motion..... 3

Tracking the anatomy of the arm during the pitching motion..... 6

        The Elbow Joint .....6

        The Radioulnar Joint.....7

        The Wrist and Finger Joints .....8

        Summary Chart.....9

How to Manage the Vulnerability with Efficient Mechanics ..... 1

Two positions of vulnerability for the elbow..... 10

        The inside of the elbow (medial side) ..... 11

        The outside of the elbow (lateral side)..... 11

Efficient mechanics for the elbow..... 13

        Stride foot contact (SFC)..... 13

        Maximum External Rotation (MER) ..... 14

        Ball Release (BR)..... 14

        Follow-through (FT)..... 15

        Summary Chart..... 15

How to Manage the Vulnerability with Strength ..... 1

The Rationale..... 16

        The need for strength..... 16

        The need for the best exercises ..... 16

        The need for excellence in the workout design..... 17

The strength requirements and target exercises by joint..... 17

        Elbow Joint..... 17

        Radioulnar Joint (the forearm)..... 19

        Wrist and Finger Joints ..... 20

Program Innovations..... 21

        Something for everyone and every need..... 21

        The sets and reps: the variation in the workouts to match the training objectives of the season ..... 21

        In-Season Training Objectives ..... 22

        Off-Season Training Objectives..... 22

        Training Rules..... 23

The Workouts..... 23

        The alternating four-workout plan ..... 23

        Priority training ..... 24

        Target issue training..... 27

|  |           |
|--|-----------|
| Pitch-type specific training.....  | 28        |
| Elbow Recovery & Restoration.....  | 29        |
| Scheduling .....  | 1  |
| In-season training: how to integrate.....  | 30 |
| In-season sample schedules .....   | 31        |
| Off-season training: how to get started and how to cycle.....                                    | 32 |
| Getting started with the alternating four-workout plan.....  | 33        |
| Off-season sample schedules with priority-training workouts .....  | 33        |
| Weapons for Prevention of Elbow Injuries.....   | 1  |
| Your main arsenal and checklist for arm care:.....   | 34 |
| Understanding sound and efficient elbow mechanics .....  | 35        |
| Training for range-of-motion and strength .....  | 35        |
| Knowing your final pitch count for every game or bullpen that you throw.....                                   | 35        |
| Following the required recovery guidelines for specific pitch counts.....                                      | 36        |
| Committing to avoid pitching with a fatigued arm .....   | 36        |
| Paying attention to signs and symptoms for early detection of serious problems .....                           | 37        |
| Understanding the threat to your arm with the pitcher/ catcher combination.....                                | 38        |
| Using a proper warm-up, preparation and recovery program* before and after every time you throw or pitch ..... | 38        |
| Using proper lower body and rotation* mechanics.....   | 38        |
| Practicing repeatable and consistent mechanics in-between games .....  | 39        |
| Creating a sound schedule for continued development throughout the seasons of the year .....                   | 39        |
| Seeking professional analysis and instruction .....  | 39        |
| Youth Pitchers (12 and Under) .....   | 1  |
| The serious state of elbow injuries in the youth population .....                                | 40 |
| For the parent of the pitcher – A checklist of questions to help you get started .....           | 40 |
| Who will monitor him when he trains? .....   | 40        |
| Is he too young to train?.....   | 41        |
| Where will he train: the gym or home? .....  | 42        |
| When will he train?.....   | 42        |
| Training objectives for the youth pitcher.....   | 42 |
| The training adaptation for the youth pitcher .....  | 42        |
| Adjustments for the youth pitcher .....  | 43        |
| The Workouts.....  | 44 |
| The alternating three-workout plan for the gym .....   | 44        |
| The alternating three-workout plan for the home .....  | 45        |
| Sample Scheduling for the alternating three-workout plan.....  | 46        |
| Integrating training with pitching during the season: In-season sample schedules:.....                         | 47        |

Exercises and Performance Essentials ..... 1

Before getting started* ..... 49

    Training posture ..... 49

    The Hand/Grips..... 50

Target Exercises*..... 52

    Behind-Head Elbow Extension ..... 52

    Drop Curl ..... 53

    Elbow-High Cable Curls ..... 54

    EZ-bar Cable Curl ..... 55

    EZ-bar Pushdown ..... 56

    Hammer Curl..... 57

    Machine Preacher Curl ..... 57

    Out-front Elbow Extension with Pronation ..... 59

    Overhead Dumbbell Extension..... 60

    Overhead Rope Extension ..... 61

    Pronation/Supination..... 62

    Radial Flexion - Plate Held..... 63

    Rapid-fire Elbow Extension ..... 64

    Reverse Curl ..... 65

    Rice Bucket..... 66

    Spider Curl..... 67

    Ulnar Flexion - Plate Held ..... 68

    Weighted-ball Wrist Flexion..... 69

    Wrist Flexion and Extension..... 70